Dear Sirs:

These are not two copies of a single Declaration and Power of Attorney (DPA).

Please note that the inventor who signed one DPA (Lonny MacDougall) signed in the box designated for the other inventor (Edward Arnold) who did sign in his box on the second (identical) Declaration and Power of Attorney. Mr. Arnold's information has been crossed out and Mr. MacDougall's signature is pointed to the correct signature block in the first DPA. It is not believed that signing "one block over" changes the effectiveness of the signature, and both inventors have in fact signed the Declaration and Power of Attorney. However, if this presents any issue whatsoever, please contact me immediately.

Sincerely,
